

Inquiry 2: What transportation issues are anticipated to arise in the future as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic?

During the shutdown, we have seen significantly less traffic. Due to this, highway speeds have increased, and we've seen a rise in the percentage of fatalities due to higher speeds. The overall number of fatalities has dropped, but the rate of fatalities relative to the number of crashes has increased.